Bank of Granite Names Reece Commercial Loan Officer

Charlotte, N.C. —Michael Stanley “Stan” Reece, a Kannapolis native, has joined Bank of Granite as Commercial Loan Officer at its SouthPark location. Samuel M. Black, the bank’s Regional Executive in Charlotte and Mecklenburg County, made the announcement. Other full service offices in the region include Downtown Charlotte, Cornelius and the newly opened Matthews office.

Reece comes to Bank of Granite from General Electric Commercial Distribution Finance where he was Commercial Portfolio Manager. He has been in commercial banking since graduation in 1978 from Appalachian State University where he earned a BS in Business Administration with a concentration in marketing.

“Stan brings a wealth of commercial banking experience to Bank of Granite,” said Black. “We’re so happy to have someone with his experience and character to serve our customers in the SouthPark area of Charlotte.”

Joining the bank in March, Reece stated, “I’m thrilled to be a part of the unique banking family at Bank of Granite. I look forward to offering our SouthPark community benefits and services delivered with the hometown-style that sets us apart.”

Reece lives in Kannapolis with his wife Terry and their two daughters, Kathryn 15, and Hillary 12. There they attend West Point Baptist Church. He is a member of Gideon’s International and active in the community serving as West Point Community Thanksgiving Meal Coordinator and volunteers at the Cabarrus County Jail and Kannapolis Food Pantry.

Bank of Granite Corporation is the parent company of Bank of Granite and Granite Mortgage, Inc. The bank operates 21 full service banking offices in Burke, Caldwell, Catawba, Forsyth, Mecklenburg, Watauga and Wilkes Counties. Granite Mortgage, headquartered in Winston-Salem, originates home mortgages in these areas, as well as, in Hilton Head, S.C.
