Bank of Granite names Warren Boone office manager

Brenda T. Warren recently joined Bank of Granite as the Boone office manager. The bank's newly completed office is located at 230 Wilson Drive. Bennie Anderson and Joy Coffey, Bank of Granite vice presidents, made the announcement jointly. "We are really pleased to have someone with Brenda's experience and zeal for delivering the best service possible to our customers" said Anderson. Added Coffey, "She is a great asset to the bank and the customers we serve,"

A Boone native, Warren is a graduate of Watauga High School. She completed a microcomputer applications course at Caldwell Community College and Technical Institute and has 18 years of banking experience in the High Country market.

"I'm delighted to join Bank of Granite," said Warren. "The fact that the bank has a 100-year legacy of superior customer service is what attracted me to the position. I look forward to continuing that tradition at the bank's beautiful, brand new office."

Warren and her husband, Larry, reside in Zionville. They have two children, 11-year-old daughter Emily, and son Nathaniel, age seven. They attend Union Baptist Church in Zionville where Warren is a Sunday school teacher. She is the daughter of Frank and Evanel Thomas of Zionville.

Bank of Granite Corporation is the parent company of Bank of Granite and Granite Mortgage, Inc. In addition to its newest office in Boone, the bank operates 20 other full-service banking offices in Burke, Caldwell, Catawba, Forsyth, Mecklenburg, and Wilkes counties. Granite Mortgage, headquartered in Winston-Salem, originates home mortgages in these counties, as well as in Fayetteville, Greensboro, and Salisbury.
